To Whom It May Concern:

I had the opportunity to work with Jeff Daughtry as part of the summer school teaching staff at McKinley Elementary during the months of July and August 2000. During this time, I was able to observe his qualities as a new teacher. Jeff demonstrated his ability and joy in working with children of all ages, even though his training is middle school. He contributed to planning, preparation, and assessment of students.

As the lead teacher, I found his professionalism to be recommended. Jeff independently jumped in to monitor and assist students struggling, along with giving positive feedback. He consistently gave 100 percent not only to our classroom, but to other staff members. One of Jeff's strongest assets is his ability to be a positive team player.

Jeff has all the essential tools to becoming a great teacher. He has much to contribute to the field of education.

Sincerely,
