

May 1, 2000

To whom it may concern:

I am writing this letter on behalf of a motivated individual, Jeff B. Daughtry. He was employed as my Student Teacher from September 1999 to June 2000.

Jeff's eagerness and desire to implement new innovative activities in the classroom has brought forth a unique and positive energy into the classroom environment. He is full of ambition and his highest priority is derived from his student's success, without compromising, but increasing educational standards. He introduces his students to the standards and motivates them to rise beyond the traditional scales of assessment.

Jeff's ability to successfully manage in the classroom environment is apparent. He utilizes his previous years of supervisory experience to his advantage. He immediately establishes the rules and regulations, through a firm, fair, and consistent approach. He frequently experiences with a variety of classroom management methods to ensure the validity of his personal approach.

I am confident that these skills will be refined and perfected as he continues to grow with more teaching experience. I have thoroughly enjoyed working with Jeff and look forward to watching him accomplish a successful teaching career.

It is for these reasons that I give Jeff B. Daughtry my highest recommendation and feel he will be an excellent asset to any school fortunate enough to obtain his teaching services.

Please feel free to contact me with further questions pertaining to my experience of having Jeff in the classroom, please contact me at (253) 539-6420.

Sincerely,

Amy Low, Cooperating Teacher
Bethel Junior High School